

I support this petition filed on behalf of FISTS CW Club. It strikes the best balance between old and new techniques. It also emphasizes the need for proficiency in the simplest of communications techniques which is in keeping with the amateur service's fundamental tenet of providing emergency communications.